Plaintiff, via his counsel, Reshma Kamath, of the Law Office of Reshma Kamath; and Defendants County of Siskiyou and Andrea Fox, by and through counsel, Shanan L. Hewitt, Esq., of the Law Offices of Rivera Hewitt Paul LLP, collectively referred to as “the Parties,” hereby file this joint stipulation requesting a continuance of the Scheduling Conference, currently set for November 6, 2023 at 1:30 p.m., and the corresponding deadline for the Parties

1 to file their Joint Status Report. The Parties stipulate and have agreed to extend the responsive
2 pleading deadline as follows:

3 (1) On October 3, 2023, Plaintiff filed a Third Amended Complaint (Doc. 21) which 4 included new allegations and approximately 81 pages of exhibits not previously 5 included with Plaintiff's prior complaints.

6 (2) Defense counsel has had other court deadlines and most recently had been working to 7 complete an opposition to a motion for reconsideration in Estrella Chavez v. City of 8 Modesto, et al., 1:22-cv-00921-MCE-JDP. In addition, defense counsel has a pre-
9 planned, pre-paid event from October 13 through October 15 and was unable to work 10 on a responsive pleading in this case during that time frame.

11 (3) Based on these circumstances, the Court granted Defendants' ex parte request to extend 12 the time for Defendants to file their responsive pleading to the Third Amended 13 Complaint (Doc. 21) by one (1) week to October 24, 2023 (Docs. 23, 25).

14 (4) Defendants are filing a Rule 12 motion to dismiss and motion to strike Plaintiff's Third 15 Amended Complaint today, October 24, 2023. The motions challenge all claims in the 16 Third Amended Complaint and request dismissal without leave to amend of the entire 17 action. Therefore, a ruling from the Court in favor of Defendants could render the 18 Scheduling Conference moot.

19 (5) Based on the foregoing, good cause exists for a continuance of the Scheduling
20 Conference and corresponding Joint Status Report deadline. Both counsel are available
21 on March 11 or March 25, 2024, two dates for the Scheduling Conference provided 22 by the Courtroom Deputy earlier today. Therefore, the Parties request that the 23 Scheduling Conference be continued to one of those two dates and the Joint Status
24 Report deadline adjusted accordingly.
